

Name: _____

Chapter 2: Native Americans Study Guide

Test Date: _____

1.) Why did the economy of Native Americans living in the Arctic cause families to band together? (p. 86) _____

2.) What natural resource was most important to people the Eastern Woodlands and Northwest Coast? (p. 63, 84) _____

3.) After water, what was the most important natural resource for the Plains Indians? (p. 71)

4.) What was the main purpose of the Iroquois League? (p. 65) _____

5.) How were Eastern Woodland people and Iroquoian or Algonquian people grouped? (p. 64)

6.) What early civilization in the Americas developed a counting system that included zero? (p. 57) _____

7.) The main reason that early peoples in the Americas began to live in larger, more settled villages was? (p. 55) _____

8.) What means the movement of people? (p. 53) _____

9.) From which continent did early people cross into North America according to the land bridge theory? (p. 53) _____

Name: _____

Tribes and Food

10.) What foods did the Eastern Woodlands people eat? (p. 63) _____

11.) What foods did the Northwestern Chinook people eat? (p. 83) _____

12.) What foods did the Arctic Inuit and Aleut people eat? (p. 86-87) _____

13.) What foods did the Southwestern Navajo people eat? (p. 77) _____

14.) What foods did the Nez Perce people eat? (p. 79) _____

Vocabulary

15.) Define economy. (p. 84) _____

16.) This made it possible to produce more goods. (p. 63) _____

17.) A celebration to honor a cultural or religious event is called (p. 74) _____

18.) What helped scientists learn about the life of early people living in the Americas? (p. 55)

19.) Define culture. (p. 60) _____

Name:

Name that Tribe

20.) They live in the Great Plains region, live in teepees, and hunt buffalo. Who are they? (p. 73)

21.) They built large stone buildings, ruled much of southern Mexico, and developed their own writing and counting system that included the zero. Who are they? (p. 57) _____

22.) They live in the Eastern Woodlands longhouses near the Great Lakes. Who are they? (p. 64)

23.) They live in the wigwams of the Eastern Woodlands and fish is an important resource to them. Who are they? (p. 66) _____

Tribe Shelters/Homes

Tribe	Shelters/Homes
Iroquois
Navajo
Algonquian
Tribe	Shelters/Homes
Aleut/Arctic People
Plains People
Mayan

Name:

Native American Group Locations

Look at the map below, and write the numbered location and details about the area/region from the map next to the correct Native American group.

Native American Group	Numbered Location and Details/Region of America
Olmec
Arctic
Northwest
West
Maya
Eastern Woodlands
Plains
Southwest

Name:

Essay

24.) Explain the land bridge theory. (p. 53)

25.) What natural resources were used to make a teepee, longhouse, and igloo? (p. 64, 73, 86)

In addition to this study guide, please review your social studies textbook or e-book, lesson organizers, and Quizizz Review game (will be posted on Google Classroom). Good Luck!

